A WRONGED GIRL'S REVENCE.

NEW YORK, Mar. 2 - Back of the acandal involving the late millionaire Oliver of Pitisburg and Margaret Kingsley-Carpenter, the hotel stenographer who became his mistress and who later got $400,000 from Oliver's estate on the ground that he was the parent of her child, lies a story of a wronged girl's revenge. Nonia Irving is the girl who figures in this dramatic story. She came from Syracuse, N. Y., the city which produced Mrs Kingsley-Carpenter, who induced the girl to come to New York and live with her. in the magnificent house provided there for Mrs Kingsley Carpenter by Ol.ver. Nonie Irving was plied with wine and subjected to heartless treatment. On realising her wrong, she was heartbroken but resentful, and she devised an effective revenge.

Concealing her feelings, she remained with Mrs Kingsley-Carpenter one year as her companion and amanuensis. In that time she collected data, and saved copies of documents and letters which she later on laid before Oliver as proof that his mistress was untrue to him. She was able to prove that during the periods of Oliver's absence from the house, Mrs Kingsley-Carpenter received as callers racing men, politicians, actors, and a policemen, and on these she squandered her 25,000 a month allowance. 1376 Oliver promptly came to New York, discontinued providing for his mistress, and, severed all relations with her.

THREE DAYS' MAN-HUNT.

Thirty Pursuers Find Their

Match. After a chase lasting nearly three days Heinrich Petersen, who is alleged to have 774 stolen £30 from his employer at Waltham Abbey, was captured in Princes-street, un> der the walls of the Bank of England. Peterson is a young Swede, who for three weeks had been in the employment of a fellow-countryman, a florist, at Waltham Abbey. On Sunday, January 1, Inspector Jones, of the Waltham police, arrested him on a charge of theft from the florist, Close to old Waltham Abbey the prisoner broke away, and, leaping a high fence, ran across some fields. Very quickly he out-distanced his thirty old pursuers, for he is a man of exceptionally fine physiwith Garden, Moderate rental, Ready for que and extraordinary atrength. He is only 5 ft. 64 in. in height, but has a chost and limbs of great girth, while his muscles are like iron. In the dusk, while his pursuers were slowly beating a thicket which they had seen him enter, he slipped away on the other side. The police were baffied, but next morning they heard that a stranger in a long, FLESIRABLE RESIDENCE in BAR- plum-colored coat and cap, and brown gaiters, had been seen at Sawbridgeworth rooms, excellent Bathrooms and Servants' at ten o'clock the previous night. Hot in Quarters, present occupier leaving the pursuit, they traced the man to Brox. bourne, only to learn that he had taken a ticket for London.

> There was an exciting seens when late. on the Tuesday night seven policemen ran the fugitive—sometimes known as Julius Guttler-to earth in the city. He fought wildly, and his captors had to strap him down to a stretcher before the police station was reached. So the Waltham police, who had never 739 relaxed the pursuit, triumphantly took back the flying Swede.

EINGAPORE, April 13,

The British cruisers "Sutlej" "Iphigenia" have arrived here (Singapore) They passed the Baltic fleet coaling nort of the Natura Islands.

Hospital Ship Enters Saigon.

It has been reported by cable from of the submarine in modern warfare Saigon to a local shipping firm that a naval engagement has taken place off the Anamba Islands, where a portion of the Baltic fleet was reported to have anchored.

The cablegram goes on to state that the report should be received with great caution, as in Saigon it is looked upon as improbable.

engagement could have taken place, unless only five Russian vessels took part, or unless the forty-two vessels sighted by the "Iphigenia" on April 11 turned back to Anamha Islands.

It will have been noted that al though the number of ships in the fleet which passed Singapore was fortyseven, only forty-two were counted by H. M. S. "Iphigenia," leaving five unaccounted for. Unless these five fell in with the Japanese it is hardly likely that a battle took place in the vicinity of the Anamba Islands, for the Islands are far south of the spot where the British warship sighted Theories galore abound in Hongkong as to the destination of the Baltic Fleet. There are those who declare it is going to harbour on the Annam coast, and those who are ready to believe it is prepared to rush straight through to Vladivostock. THE "SULLY."

Attack on Mr Jan 180n.

The Courrier de Haiphong, of April 7, has an attack upon Mr Jameson, the local salvage expert, who has been upon the "Sully" endeavouring to float her. The It is hardly feasible that a naval Haiphong journal designates Mr Jameson *Englishman Jameson, and adds- who declares that the bad construction of the "Sully" will lose him his reputation as an engineer. The geneational revelations which he has made on this ressel, which we look upon as one of the best of our war vessels and which he designates as a useless ressel have caused some emotion amongst the French public?

In order to verify the declamations of this 'stranger' the paper sought information from superior officers in the French naval department in the Extreme Orient, and publishes a comparison between the methods adopted in France and England in the construction of vessels of war. France a sum is voted and engineers are instructed to build a ship for the amount set aside; and after the vessel is built the artillary is fitted to sait her. She is not built to suit he artillery as is done in England. The paper states that Mr Jameson's allegations that the vessel is much too light are exaggerated and inaccurate, and it points out that the vessel liss withstood for two months the terrible strain caused by being impaled on the rock without even a fissure or a peeling off of paint. This alone many conflicting statements were put forth, are as follows :- "Dione" soratch; prove that the vessel is well-built, says the | that it may be as well to state the facts, so paper, and adds, your Englishman is a faras I was able to ascertain them, at Chefoo, 'Aileen' 6 min.; One Design yachts 11 gascon. Thus the military administration of the neutral port of Newchwang was justified by the Russians as counter measure to the alleged breach of neutrality committed by Japan before her declaration of war when she landed troops in the neutral port of Chemulpo and compelled the Russian war ships there to come out and light under a threat of torpedoing thom in their anchorage. Thus too. Russia could reply to Japan's protest to China against Russia's dila:oriness in disarming the war ships that had sought refuge in the neutral port of Shang hai by pointing to Japan's seizure of Russian torpedo boat that had been taken in charge by the Chinese authorities in the neutral port of Chefoo. This was undoubtedly a flagrant breach of neutrality, though it was claimed by Japan afterwards that the Russian torpedo boat which was forcibly abducted by Jap. the charge of the Chinese authorities and had moreover failed to disarm. So much within the first few days after the incident, rian torpedo boat and with Commander min. Mori, the Japanesu naval officer attached to the Japanese consulate at Chelco. The Russian destroyer "Rechiteluy," under the command of Commander Roshekovsky, entered Chefoo on the night of August 10th. 1904, after Admiral Witgeft's disastrous sortie from Port Arthur. She carried dispatches from Admiral Uchtomsky to bo cabled from Chefoo to St. Petersburg. The Rechitchny" was pursued by two Japanese destroyers, the "Asashibo"

"Kasumi," who gave up the pursuit only after the 'Rechitelny's" entry into Che foo harbor. Commander Roshakovasky, (port), on to Kowloon Rock (port) and so he told me, after filing his dispatches at the cable office and with the Russian Consol, received a visit from the flag lieutement of the Chinese Admiral in port who asked him what were his intentions. To this he gave an evasive reply. Coal for his boat had already been ordered. News had already been brought that two Japanese cruisers and two destroyers were lying in wait outside. This news was convoyed to Commander Roshakovasky by M. Smet, French correspondent of Le Mati

AMATEUR CHAMPIONSHIP AT HOME. This reason a new departure has been taken with the annual competition for the championship of amateur billiards. In place of asking every aspirant for the title land in the "Nina." The course will be to go to London, the idea of arranging local qualifying competitions was adopted The North has its games at Manchester. the South in London. It was decided, too, so as as to make the affair as comprehensive at could possibly be, that the amsteur champions of Iroland and Scotland should be asked to meet the representatives of the North and South of England. But so far there is no Scottish champion, so the honour of giving the contest an international flavour devolved upon Mr A. T. Marsh, of Dublin, the Irish champion. His rivals were Messis G. A Hegin bottom, of Ashton-under-Lyne, the North country candidate; and A. W. T. Good, twice holder of the challenge trophy, who represents the South.

It fell to the latter's good fortune to draw the bye. So Messrs. Marsh and Heginbottom, two very dissimilar cueists in appearance, style, and scoring methods, met in the preliminary heat at the Thurston Grand Hall, Leteester-square, on March 12. Hernhottom won by 1000 to 736, averaging 10 per innings.

BUFFALO BILL'S DIVORCE.

NORTH PLATTE, Neb., Feb. 28.-Mrs. Louisa Cody, for forty years the wife, business partner and helpmeet of Colonel William E. Cody (Buffalo Bill), the celebrated ex-scout. Indian fighter and showman, today took the witness stand in defence of her character and good name, which have been assailed by her husband in his sensational petition for a divorce and to tell her side of the family quarrel. Mrs Cody emphatically denied that she had ever attempted to poison her husband or that she had administered 'dragon's her and her husband. Mrs Cody told of blood ' or any poison to him for the purpose of securing his love or gaining control over

The hearing was held behind closed doors in the law offices of Wilcox & Halling, attorneys for Mrs Cody, who have conducted her defence since Buffalo Bill filed his petition at Barin City, the county seat of Big Horn county, Wyoming. Mrs Cody testified that she was married to Colonel Cody in St. Louis forty years go, when she was 22 years of age.

At the time we were married, she said, woman press agent for the Buffalo Bill Colonel Cody was employed on the plains show to the ranch in 1902, and gifts made of Kansas as a teamster and shortly after. her by Colonel Cody. ward became engaged as a buffalo bunter for the railroad contractors on a division of the Union Pacific. He killed thousands of these animals which were used by the graders for meat.

'In 1868 we moved to what was then Fort McPherson, Nebraska, where Colonel Cody became a scout for the government. We lived at Fort McPherson for several years. We were poor in those days, and 1 did what I could to assist in supporting the family by taking in sewing. Colonel Cody and I did not have serious trouble TENTISTRY. during our, residence at Fort McPherson The colonel went on the stage in 1874 and shortly after this he took us to Rochester, 2211 N: Y., where we lived for four years.

At the expiration of this time we came back to Nebraska and located here at North Platte. We bought property here from time to time with earnings of the colonel's FIREMAN'S FUND INSURANCE CO. show business.

• In 1893 we purchased our residence here in town. This was fixed up in good style and I prepared to welcome my husband home from England, where he had been touring with his show."

Was this home-coming the occasion of the big banquet tendered by the citizens of North Platte to the colonel?' asked Mr Halligan. THE Undersigned, having been appointed

> Yes, sir; I doctored him and gave him different kinds of medicine for his little troubles when he drank.1

> Did you ever administer dragon's blood for the purpose of making the colonel love you more and other women less?' 'No, Sir; and I don't know what never heard of such a thing."

Did you ever give the colonel anything MOTAL Funds at 31st December, 1903, to make him sick?"

'No, sir.' 'Did you ever poison him?'

'No. sir.' Replying to furthur questions, Mrs Cody declared she had never told Mrs Boyer (a witness for the plaintiff) or any person that she had drugged her husband to make him love her or to gain control over him so that. he would sign certain papers for her. She £3,550,883 11 9 also denied that she had ever poisoned any of the colonel's dogs intentionally. 'I told the men at the ranch,' she explained, to put out strychnine or other poison for the rats, which were getting bothersome, and accidentally the colonel's dogs got some of the poison. One of the dogs, in particular, of which the colonel was very fond and which I liked myself for hat reason, was killed, and I lelt very badly over it.' Mrs Cody acknowledged that she had punished har children whonever they needed it,' and had occasionally castigated them with a small ridingwhip. Mrs Cody denied that she was ever intoxicated, as had been testified by witnesses for the plaintiff. She never drank liquor except for medicinal purposes, she said, and never used profane or obscene language.

' Do you still love Colonel Cody?' asked the attorney. " Yes; he is the father of my children and I love him still." 'Do you desire a reconciliation at this

Yes. I do, but I think that the colonel ought to retract the poisoning accusation. "Would you be glad to see him now?" Yes, I would gladly welcome him of your daughter as having been her No. sir.

Do you ever send him a threatening telegram in connection with the matter? I wired him that I thought he had been the cause of breaking Arta's heart. A pathetic scene occurred here when Attorney Wilcox introduced a letter and asked Mrs Cody to identify it. Tears streamed down her cheeks, and between hor broken sobs she said it was a letter to her from her daughter Arta three days before she died. Among other things written by Mrs Thorpe (Arta) was the statement that bringing of the suit for divorce by her father had broken her heart. Mrs Cody denied that Co'onel Powell manager of Colonel Cody's Wyoming interests, ever came to her at Rochester, or any place, seeking a reconciliation between Cody's homecoming on Christmas, 1901. She said he seemed glad to see her, and when he went away Christmas night he bade her an affectionate farewell, kissing her as he stepped aboard the train.

THE PERFECT HUSBAND.

BY AN APPRECIATIVE WIFE,

TT isn't overy man who will wash up, and attend to the home, when he returns tired from work. These were the words of an Englishwoman, in a chat with a representative of Northern Gossip, and, she added, my husband did more than that; he even washed my face, for I was MARTY.

· I had gradually sunk into a state of general debility, and over nine years suffered from various ailments as a resultsuffered, in fact, until my cure by Dr Williams' pink pills. Eventually the troubles developed into a bad skin disease.
I became so run down and helpless that I could not do anything in the way of housework. I could eat nothing solid, nor could I obtain a good night's sleep. My husband called a good doctor, and oh, the bottles of medicine I took ! Shortly after the birth of my little wirl, a friend called one day when I was feeling even worse than usual, and she said, Why don't you try Dr Williams' pink pills?'

I did begin to take the pills, and one bottle effected a very great improvement. Wisconsin, U.S. flagship, for Manila. As I persevered my appetite came back, and I could sleep in comfort. The skin disease disappeared, and L'rapidly became
